Hazeltine Golf Course, in Chaska, Minnesota is world-renowned. It has been the site of the Men's and Women's U.S. Opens, PGA Tournaments, U.S. Amateur Tournament, and next year's Ryder Cup.

The Hazeltine course has been played by golfing greats such as: Tiger Woods, Jack Nicklaus, Arnold Palmer, and all the modern-day PGA pros.

Rich Gannon is one of the greatest quarterbacks to ever play the game of football. He played for the Minnesota Vikings starting in 1987, but his finest season was 2002 with the Oakland Raiders, when he set NFL records for completions and passing yards, leading his team to Super Bowl XXXVII.

That same year he was named the NFL's Most Valuable Player and was selected to his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl (he was also named the Pro Bowl MVP, for the second straight year.)

Rich Gannon is now part of CBS Sports, as a game analyst for The NFL On CBS.
